

Neil E. Harl

Neil E. Harl is Charles F. Curtiss Distinguished Professor in Agriculture and Professor of Economics at Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa. He is a member of the Iowa Bar. Dr. Harl is also Director of the Center for International Agricultural Finance. The Center conducts schools principally for Central and Eastern Europe, the former Soviet Union and China. His primary areas of emphasis at Iowa State University have been agricultural law, agricultural finance and resource economics. He received a B.S. from Iowa State University, a J.D. from the University of Iowa and a Ph.D. in economics from Iowa State University.

Dr. Harl served as President of the American Agricultural Economics Association and President of the American Agricultural Economics Foundation. He has been named a Fellow of the American Agricultural Economics Association. He was an organizer and first President of the American Agricultural Law Association. He has received more than 30 major awards including the USDA Superior Service Award in 1987; Charles A. Black Award from the Council for Agricultural Science and Technology in 1997, for effectiveness in communicating with the public; and the Distinguished Service to Agriculture award from the Chicago Farmers Club in 1999. Dr. Harl served for seven years by Congressional appointment to the Office of Technology Assessment, Technical Assistance Advisory Committee, and chaired that group in 1993-94. He also served on the 16-member Commissioner's Advisory Group, Internal Revenue Service, in 1979-80.

Dr. Harl has published widely including 24 books; more than 300 professional articles and bulletins; and more than 800 articles in farm and financial publications. He is the author of the 15-volume treatise, Agricultural Law (Matthew Bender & Co.), Agricultural Law Manual (Agricultural Law Press) and The Farm Debt Crisis of the 1980s. He is co-author of Principles of Agricultural Law (Agricultural Law Press) with Roger McEowen. He broadcasts daily on 70 radio stations, "The Law of the Land."